

About

JENNIFER VANDERPOOL

VICE PRESIDENT

As Vice President of Felderman Design-Build, Jennifer plays a key role in overseeing operations, strategic initiatives, client relationships, and community engagement. A strong advocate for the design-build construction method, she values its efficiency and collaborative approach—principles that Felderman Design-Build consistently delivers with excellence.

Committed to community impact, Jennifer actively serves on several boards and committees, including PBS Fort Wayne, Greater Fort Wayne Inc., Junior Achievement, and Habitat for Humanity.

She holds a bachelor's degree in business management but finds her greatest joy in being a dedicated mother to her two wonderful sons.
